

Elizabeth Daily Journal

Goes Digital !

The Elizabeth Public Library received a project grant from the New Jersey Historical Commission, a division of the Department of State, which is being utilized for the first phase of our Elizabeth Daily Journal Digitization Project.

The initial phase of this digital archive will encompass the January 1871 through August 1915 issues of the newspaper.

Get step-by-step introduction to the use of our new Elizabeth Daily Journal Digital Database.

Participants will learn how to search for, crop, print and / or save specific articles.

Space is limited.

Registration is required for all workshops.

Contact the Local History and Special Collections Department at (908) 354-6060 x. 7220 to register.

Tuesdays, October 18 & November 15

6:30-7:30pm

Thursdays, November 3 & December 8

10:30-11:30am

Local History and Special Collections
Upcoming Events

All workshops are held in the 3rd Fl.
Computer Lab of our Main Branch

Elizabeth Public Library
Local History and Special Collections
11 S. Broad Street
Elizabeth, N.J. 07202
(908)354-6060 x. 7220
www.elizpl.org